WELCOME LETTER

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Welcome to the 9th European Veterinary Immunology Workshop, EVIW 2027, in Firenze!

On behalf of the local organizing committee, I am very happy and honored to welcome you to 9th European Veterinary Immunology Workshop, EVIW 2027, that will take place in Firenze from September 8th to September 10th 2027.

EVIW 2027 will be an international meeting dedicated to scientific excellence, innovation, and collaboration in the field of veterinary immunology. The scientific programme will cover key areas of veterinary and comparative immunology, including fish and avian immunology, innate and adaptive immunity, infection and immunity, mucosal immunology and immuno-oncology.

In addition, the Workshop will address emerging and highly relevant topics such as One Health, including wildlife immunology, emerging diseases, artificial intelligence applied to immunology (vaccine design and epitope prediction) as well as new experimental models, including organs-on-chip and advanced in vitro systems.

The meeting aims to the gathering of Academia and industry through scientific excellence and innovation. Making use of high-level sessions and dedicated networking opportunities, EVIW 2027 will create an inspiring environment to connect, collaborate, and shape the future of animal health.

Firenze, located in Tuscany, in the heart of Italy, is renowned worldwide for its cultural and artistic heritage, and for its beautiful hilly agricultural landscapes, in the region of Chianti, will host the Workshop. The EVIW venue and the social events, hosted on some of the most spectacular locations of the city, will offer the opportunity to discover monuments, historical sites of the cradle of the Renaissance, while also enjoying the excellence of Italian cuisine.

Vi aspettiamo a Firenze!

We look forward to welcoming you in Firenze! We look forward to welcoming you in Firenze!

Kind regards,
Mariangela Caroprese,
Chair of LOC, EVIW 2027

VENUE

Palazzo degli Affari

Piazza Adua, 1
50123 Firenze (FI)

Palazzo degli Affari, faces a centuries-old park, with rare and original trees and plants. Opened in 1974 and planned by architect Pierluigi Spadolini, Palazzo degli Affari is a modern, flexible, and multifunctional venue.

The Congress Area in Florence is located in the hearth of the city. A few steps from the historic center, in front of the Railway Central Station. A strategical position, to allow maximum functionality and practicality.

The venue offers modern technical facilities, ample exhibition space, and a well-organized flow of attendees, maximizing visibility and engagement opportunities for sponsors and exhibitors.

WHY SUPPORT EVIW 2027?

Why Sponsor EVIW 2027

EVIW 2027 offers a focused and high-level environment to connect with key players in animal health and immunology.

By sponsoring, your company will:

- Reach a targeted and highly qualified audience
- Showcase your technologies and innovations
- Engage with leading researchers and decision-makers
- Strengthen your positioning in a fast-evolving scientific field

A unique opportunity to increase visibility, build partnerships, and be part of the future of veterinary immunology.

Get Involved

Don't miss the opportunity to position your company at the forefront of innovation in veterinary immunology.

For sponsorship opportunities and further information, please contact us at eviw2027@thetriumph.com and visit <https://eviw2027.org/> to discover more about the event, its vision, and how you can be part of it.

Join us in shaping the future of animal health.

We anticipate welcoming over 300 delegates, including scientists from universities, research institutions, state veterinary authorities, as well as professionals from the diagnostics and animal health industries to Florence in 2027.

The conference actively values collaboration with its commercial partners. Sponsors and exhibitors will benefit from tailored visibility across multiple channels—digital, print, and on-site—according to their selected package.

We encourage early confirmation to maximize exposure, as promotional activities will be rolled out across various platforms in the lead-up to the event.
